

What has happened today for which you are grateful?	What could you say to the person sitting to your left that would make them smile?	Why is it important to learn how to moderate activities that are very enjoyable and good?
What is your earliest memory of our family?	If God was sitting at this table with us, what would he ask us to talk about?	What is the difference between the words "fair" and "equal"? Should parents treat their children fairly or equally?
What is the funniest thing we have done as a family?	What do you think the Pope is talking about during his dinner? Who is he eating with?	How can the differences in each of us help us become a better family?
If you could change one thing about our family, what would you change?	If the President of the U.S. was coming for dinner, what do you think we should serve? What should we NOT serve?	When a family member disagrees with you, what should you do?
Pick one athlete that you think would enjoy a meal with our family? Why did you pick this person?	Name one special talent that each person sitting at this table has.	If Jesus was eating with us tonight, what questions would you ask Him?
What did you hear today that didn't make sense?	What is your favorite family activity that doesn't include any form of technology?	What is your favorite physical activity? Why do you like your choice?
What did you see today that made you smile? Why did it make you smile?	What is your favorite family activity that does include technology?	When you start to feel overwhelmed, what do you do to calm yourself down?
Pick a word that would help us know what kind of day you had today. Why did you pick that word?	How do you help this family stay close to God and His love?	Why is it important to learn how to listen to people?
Which friend, classmate, co-worker, or neighbor would find our family fun to be with? Why did you choose this person?	Name one story from the Bible that doesn't make sense to you. Why is it confusing?	Which of the four seasons of the year is your favorite? Explain your choice.
If you could give one family chore to the person sitting to your right, what would you want them to do? Why?	Sunday is the day that God wants us to rest with Him as a family. How can we do this?	Why is it important to respect the name of the Lord? How do you respect God's name?